

Carol Hughes

Carol Hughes was a recipient of the Faculty Senate Academic Scholarship at TCC in 1979. She continued with her education and graduated cum laude as a math and computer science major from Furman University in South Carolina. Carol has excelled in the corporate business world, the private non-profit field, in civic and church endeavors, and her community. Carol continues to be involved in charitable organizations and received the Martin Luther King “Keeper of the Dream” award and the Habitat for Humanity Church Coordinator and “One Nail at a Time” award.