

Dana Brooks ('99)

Dana Brooks attended Pensacola Junior College and Tallahassee Community College before graduating from Florida State University, cum laude, with a Bachelor of Science in Social Work. She later earned a Master of Social Work from Florida State (2003) before earning a law degree from Florida State (2007), magna cum laude. She is a member of the prestigious Order of the Coif, signifying the top 10% of law school graduates.

Dana was sworn in as an attorney in the morning and made a named partner of a thirty-year-old revered plaintiff's law firm that same afternoon. She is a founding member of the Society of Women Trial Lawyers, an organization devoted to supporting women trial attorneys in their personal and professional challenges. She is a past president of the Capital City Justice Association, a Charter Member of the Democratic Women's Club of Leon County, and a former Trustee of the Florida Democratic Party.

Dana is an enthusiastic North Florida resident who loves her community. She supports numerous nonprofits, including Oasis Center for Women and Girls, Girls on the Run, and L3 - Ladies Learning to Lead. She is a former board member of 2-1-1 Big Bend and Second Harvest of the Big Bend. With her support and encouragement, attorneys and staff at Fasig Brooks contribute thousands of dollars and volunteer hours in Tallahassee and Leon County every year.
