

Mike Illers

Mike Illers retired from a successful career as a businessman in 2011. He was with Wetterau/SuperValu for twenty three years holding various positions in finance and administration including a stint as CFO and as a Division Manager. Later Mike served as Vice President of Hancock Bank from 2004 to 2011 where he was responsible for Institutional Banking and worked with government entities and non-profit organizations.

Mike moved his family to Tallahassee in 1988. Eleven years later he joined the TCC Foundation Board and served for almost twenty years. During that time Mike held the position of Board President for one year and Treasurer for two. He joined the Finance and Investment Committee at the same time he joined the Board, and still serves on that Committee today. Earlier this year Mike was named as a TCC Foundation Board Director Emeritus. Among his many accomplishments while a member of the Board, Mike co-chaired its first capital campaign.

Mike and his wife Patricia have been members of the President's Circle since 2008. When asked, Mike will tell you that "TCC is at the forefront in the development of students to become the leaders of the future. I have always been proud to be a small part in assisting TCC students achieve success."
