

Kimberly A. Moore

Kimberly A. Moore has spent over a decade in the workforce development arena. She currently serves as the vice president for workforce development at TCC. In this role Kim is responsible for developing strategic solutions that address the needs of employers and those seeking to enter or advance in the workforce. Prior to joining TCC, she served as the CEO of WORKFORCE plus, becoming the youngest person, the first African-American, and the first woman to hold this top position.

Kim is a 1993 graduate of TCC. She continued her education at Florida State University, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice in 1995. In May 2006, Kim earned her Master of Business Administration from Webster University. She is a member of Leadership Tallahassee Class 24 and Leadership Florida Class 33.

In addition to her role at TCC, Kim continues to give back to her community through service. Her many volunteer roles include serving as a trustee for Florida A & M University and board director for Big Bend Hospice. Kim has been recognized both locally and statewide for her service and commitment to excellence. Her accolades include Tallahassee's Top 26 Women in Business (2007), the Greater Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Leadership Pacesetter Award (2009), the Dr. Reginald Rolle Memorial Economic Development Champion of the Year Award (2010), Florida Diversity Council's 2014 Florida's Most Powerful and Influential Woman Award and Tallahassee Woman Magazine's 2016 'Women Who Mean Business' Innovator of the Year Award.
